

Please join GovWorks for an informative learning session, created to assist the small business community. The speaker panel for this seminar will offer a variety of view points and knowledge regarding specific financing services and programs for you to consider as you build your business.

Our guest panel includes:

Joe Loddo, Small Business Administration, District Director, Washington, D.C.

Cathy Wiltse, Associate Director, Virginia Small Business Development Centers, GMU

Carl Wallace, Executive Vice President, Millennium Bank

Joe Amato, Consultant, JGA Associates

Steve Smits, Vice President, PNC Bank

Richard Lewis, Vice President, Wells Fargo Business Credit

“..Whether you are starting a business or expanding one, sufficient ready capital is essential. However, it is not enough to simply have sufficient financing; knowledge and planning are required to manage it well...”

(Small Business Administration's website: <http://www.sba.gov/services/financialassistance/basics/index.html>)

Date: Tuesday, May 1

Seminar: 8:00 – 10:00 a.m. Please arrive between 7:30 - 8:00 a.m.

Location: ASCE World Headquarters (Bechtel Center)

1801 Alexander Bell Drive (off of Hunter Mill Road and Dulles Toll Road)

Reston, Virginia 20191- 4400

Phone: 703.295.6167

<http://www.asce-bechtel-center.org/contact/directions.cfm>

RSVP required

Please respond to this email if you would like to attend the Educational Seminar. Due to limited seating, only two representatives per company please. You will receive a reply email to confirm your attendance.

Email questions to smallbusiness@govworks.gov.

GovWorks is a Federal Acquisition Center within Department of Interior's National Business Center's Acquisition Directorate. As a Franchise Fund, GovWorks operates under the Government Management Reform Act. Visit www.govworks.gov.