

J.S. Lafoon Company, Inc.

J.S. Lafoon Company, Inc. is an 8(a), Woman-Owned, HubZone Certified, General Contracting firm whose recently completed projects include a $3 million design/build laboratory contract at the National Institutes of Health, in addition to a concurrent $1.5 million laboratory renovation and a $600,000 loading dock renovation. Experience also includes paving and curbing work for a Secret Service training facility (one mile of paving design/build project through the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers).

Bonding Capabilities: $10 million/project; $15 million aggregate

8(a) Status: Attained 8(a) status in March 2000
6 years remaining in program

HubZone Certification: Current

Primary NAICS Code: 236220 (Commercial & Institutional Building Construction)

Specialty Areas: Interior Renovation; Asbestos & Lead Paint Abatement

Additional Capabilities: Architectural, Construction Management, Mechanical, Electrical, Design/Build

Term Contracts: 3 Term Contracts at The National Institutes of Health

Clients:

National Institutes of Health	Smithsonian Institution
U.S. Army Corps of Engineers	General Services Administration
Bolling Air Force Base	U.S. Department of Agriculture

BOS: Elsie Price 202-606-4000 ext. 211

For references and additional NAICS codes, please contact Monica Evans: 301-252-4458

J.S. Lafoon Company, Inc. 930 Kennedy Street, NW, Washington, DC 20011

P: 301.212.4123 F: 202.723.9046 www.jslafoon.com jsl@jslafoon.com

Project Title:
Contact:
Phone:

Contractor Management Developer Contract
Kristy Long
301-4966248

J.S. Lafoon Company, Inc. was the single point of contact for all aspects of planning, design, construction and moving of end user client to three different sites (Buildings 5, 8 and 10) at the National Institutes of Health while renovating laboratory and office spaces for a 59 module contract.

This multi-million dollar project consisted of all occupied spaces requiring extensive phasing to minimize disruptions.